Amendment, filed on 8/24/05 has been considered and entered.

Amendment of Fig 2 is approved.

Amendments of claims 1 & 3 overcome the objections to the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huang et al. (US 5897825).

Regarding claims 11 & 13, Huang et al. disclose a plastic substrate comprising a deposition film (SiOH) with a predetermined thickness formed on the plastic substrate by performing plasma chemical vapor deposition, which satisfies the claimed formula (lines 66 of column 2- lines 9 of column 3).

Regarding claims 12 & 14, Huang et al. disclose that the predetermined thickness is between 0.1micron to 4.5 micron (100 nm in this case, line 6 of column 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Philips et al. (US 5792550).

Regarding claims 1 & 3, Philips et al. disclose a plastic substrate comprising a deposition film with a predetermined thickness (silicon dioxide film) by plasma chemical vapor deposition (lines 25-28 of column 11) and further discloses that the deposition film has particularly high colorless transparency which is obviously about at least 97% (lines 8-17 of column 3).

Regarding claims 2 & 4, Philips et al. disclose that the deposition film (silicon dioxide) has thickness of 0.1 micron (lines 14-17 of column 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-1 & 15-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Regarding claims 5, 10, 15 & 20, the prior art of record neither shows nor suggests the combination of limitations of claim 15 & 20 together with the claimed plastic substrate.

Regarding claims 6, 8, 16 & 18, the prior art of record neither shows nor suggests a plurality of interface covalent bonds disposed between the deposition film layer and the plastic layer together with other cited limitations.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
